PLANS FORMULATED.

Marine Band to Head Procession—Parade to be in Three Divisions—Army and Navy to be Represented.

Governor Henry C. Stuart, of Virginia, has advised the members of the George Washington Birthday Association that he will be present in Alexandria on next Monday to review the parade to be given in honor of the first president. The acceptance of the invitation by the governor assures the success of the parade beyond all doubt as he will be accompanied by the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, the crack military organization of the state. Arrangements have been made for a special train over the Washington-Southern Railway which will bring the governor and the blues to Alexandria. At Fredericksburg it is expected that a coach will be attached which will be occupied by the Fredericksburg military company.

A meeeting of the association will be held tonight in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce when many of the arrangements for the parade will be completed.

Col. Henry T. Allen, U. S. A. will be the chief marshal, and Julian Y. Williams, from this city, will be chief of staff. The aids to the chief [illegible] will be chosen from resi[illegible] this city and Alexandria [illegible]fax counties.

The second division, with Kenneth W. Ogden, as marshal, will be composed of the committee on fire of city council, a delegation from the Washington fire department, the Friendship Veteran Fire Association, the three active fire companies of this city, the Cherrydale fire department, and others.

The third division, with A. A. Paul in charge, will be composed of the uniformed cantons of Odd Fellows, of Alexandria, and Washington; the Knights of Pythias, the Knights of Columbus, Improved Order of Red Men, the Eagles Order of Fraternal Americans, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, American Indian Guards, and Alexandria High School students.

In addition to Vice President Marshall invitations to attend the celebration have been accepted by Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President; Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the President's physician; Judge William H. White, president of the Washington-Southern Railway; D. J. Callahan, general manager of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, and many others.

The following is a list of the officers and committees of the Washington Birthday Association.

A CORRECTION.

In the telegraphic account of the passage of the enabling act by the Virginia legislature in the Gazette on Saturday, it was stated that Delegae J. Fred Birrell, of this city, voted in with the majority for the bill. This was in error, Mr. Birrell's vote having been cast with the minority against the bill.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Augustus Octavius Bacon, United States Senator from Georgia, for nearly nineteen years and chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee since the ascendency of the Democratic party on March 4, 1913, yesterday died in a hospital in Washington after an illness of ten days. He was the first United States Senator elected by direct vote of the people under the seventeenth constitutional amendment. Though Senator Bacon had been seriously ill with kidney trouble and complications developing from a broken rib, his death was unexpected.

John J. Kennedy, of New York, state treasurer, committed suicide yesterday at the Markeen Hotel, Buffalo, where he had lived with his family for about a year. He was found in a small wash room off the hotel ballroom, with his throat cut and an open razor laying on the floor beside him, and death occurred before a doctor arrived. Temporary insanity induced by worry over his impending appearance before a New York grand jury, where District Attorney Charles S. Whitman has been conducting a Joe Doe graft inquiry, is said by his attorney to be the only reason that can be assigned for Mr. Kennedy's act.

Rudolfo Reyes, who was minister of justice in President Huerta's cabinet, was aboard the French line steamer La Navarre, which arrived at Havanna yesterday from Vera Cruz. Reyes was under escort of secret service men attached to the Mexican government and was not permitted to land or communicate with Gen. Feilx Diaz. Reyes was allowed to leave Mexico on condition that he should go direct to Europe.

George Lilie, 97 years old is [illegible], and Emma Lillie, his daughter, [illegible] in a serious condition as a result of [illegible] drugged by burglars who brok[illegible] their home yesterday at Silver Creek, N. Y. The crime was made known when one of Lillie's sons visited the house yesterday.

The withdrawal of the International Union of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America from the Building Trades Department of the Federation of Labor has been announced by Wm. L. Hutchinson president of the Carpenters' International Union in Indianapolis, Ind. The action follows a referendum vote resulting from a controversy with the International Union of Sheet Metal Workers. It was alleged that the carpenters infringed on the work of the sheet metal workers. The action is expected to have its effect on the entire building trades movement in the United States.

BRYAN'S NARROW ESCAPE.

New York, Feb. 16—Som[illegible] a scoring was administered [illegible] Authors' League of America at dinner last evening by Secretary of State Bryan, but the members nearly had revenge. The Secretary had paused long enough in his speech to remark that he did not know whether his address was pleasing or not to the company, but that he had passed the time when he selected language to please.

Just when he reached for a drink of water and picked up inadvertently a glass of champagne, Mrs. Bryan, seeing her husband's mistake, sprang quickly from her place, two seats away from the Secretary, and put her hand over the glass just as it was about to reach his lips. He laughed and picked up a glass of water.

Coughs up Snake.

Pana, Ill., Feb. 16—During a severe coughing spell, William Austin, of Shelbyville, expelled a small blacksnake from his throat, which he believes he swallowed two years ago while drinking water from a brook on his farm. During that period, Austin suffered distress and severe coughing spells and several physicians were unable to diagnose his case.

Mrs. Gracie Ale has returned to her home in this city, after a few days' visit to her sister, in Philadelphia.

Master George Rice, who has been quite sick at his home in north Royal street, has greatly improved.

ENABLING BILL UP TO GOVERNOR

Briefs For and Against Approval Will be Submitted to Executive.

LAW POINT INVOLVED.

Should Measure be Vetoed, Friends of Measure Want to Introduce Another Instrument.

(Special Dispatch to the Gazette)

Richmond, Feb. 16.—The enabling act reached the Governor's office at 1:47 this afternoon after having been signed by Speaker Cox and Lieutenant Governor Ellyson.

Richmond, Va, Feb 16—The Williams einabling act was signed by Speaker Cox and Lieut-Governor Ellyson today, and will be laid before Governor Stuart for his consideration. Briefs for and against the approval of the bill will be filed tomorrow. In each case they will be simple statements of the points at issue. Senator Early, for the opponents, will submit a statement of the grounds on which he claims the bill could not pass the senate, and why he believes it to be unconstitutional. Senators Walker and Mapp will submit a statement in defense of the bill and the manner of its passage. Governor Stuart has indicated that he will consult parliamentarians and constitutional authorities of his own selection before coming to a final determination.

Judge Martin Williams, patron of the bill, has asked the Governor to act on the matter as promptly as possible, for if it is found that there is a defect in the manner of its passage, the friends of the measure hope to rectify the error at this session by the immediate introduction of a new bill. None can be introduced after Friday without unanimous consent.

Governor Stuart will be urged to sign the bill on the ground that all parliamentary questions are for the two houses of the General Assembly to determine, and that constitutional questions may be left to the courts. The Senate makes its own rules of procedure, and if new matter was introduced in the conference report, in violation of those rules, the point of order should have been made on the floor of the Senate, and not before the Governor.

The constitutional questions involved cut to the very foundations of the government and involve the whole issue of initiative and referendum—[illegible]rnment or representative government. Questions are involved which the courts may desire time to consider, and which few lawyers which had not already given the subject close study would care to pass upon in the short period allowed the Governor for approval or disapproval of a bill.

While it lays a charge on each county and city for expenses of a special election, amounting in all to approximately $30,000, it is contended that the bill makes no direct appropriation, and so required for passage only a majorty of those present—not a majority of all those elected.

WOMAN FALLS IN SNOW.

Mrs. Wm. H. Fugatt Almost Freezes in Storm at Spotsylvania.

Spottsylvania, Va., Feb. 16—On Friday while the storm of wind and snow was prevailing, and while Mrs. Wm. H. Fugatt was descending a slope leading from the well in the yard to the dwelling, with a bucket of water in her hand, she slipped and fell on the ice and so injured herself that she was unable to get up and go to the house.

She lay there in the storm for an hour, and was thoroughly chilled and would have frozen to death, but for a colored man coming by. He saw Mrs. Fugatt in her helpless condition and took her to the house where she was put to bed. No one was at the Fugatt home but herself and three small children who wer eunable to aid her. The extent of Mrs. Fugatt's injuries are not yet known.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT.

Miss Timlow to Succeed Miss Hacket at Children's Home.

At a meeting of the board of Managers of the Children's Home held last Thursday evening, it was decided to call as superintendent, Miss Grace Timlow, of Washington, D. C. to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss E. M. Hacket, who has held that position for the past year and a half. As word has been received that Miss Timlow will accept the position it is expected that she will begin her duties here about March 1st.

The home is certainly to be congratulated upon securing the services of so well trained and experienced a worker, as her recommendations are of the highest order and pay splendid tribute to her ability in this line of social service which she has chosen to follow for the past fifteen years.

Descended from a long line of Episcopal clergymen Miss Timlow received her early education under the tutelage of her father, and elder sisters at home. Later she became a student of the Keble scholo, Syracuse, N. Y., and graduated from the Kindergarten Training School at that place. Desiring higher study along special lines she then became a student at Cornell University for two years. At that time her intention was to make teaching her profession, but after two years experience in that line she decided her inclinations were more toward social work and thereupon undertook further training to more perfectly fit herself for that vocation.

Nine months were spent by her in the hospital at Elmyra, N. Y., specializing in children's diseases, didectics, &c. Sewing, cooking and fine laundry work she took up under private teachers. At the end of that time in order to gain experience she became assistant in the House of the Good Shepherd, in Rockland, Me. After one year in that position, after the death of the Superintendent, she was placed in charge of the home, a position which she filled most creditably for two years, as a testimonial from the chairman of the board of trustees testifies.

Soon after this Miss Timlow was called to San Antonio, Tex., to take charge of the Protestant Home for Destitute Children. After nearly a year in this place she resigned by order of the home physician, as an outbreak of yellow fever made it unsafe for her to remain longer. Her work there, though short in duration, was accompanied by splendid results as the testimony of those in authority bears witness.

Later experiences in children's homes at Jonesburg, N. Y., Yorkville, South Carolina, and New Brunswick, N. J., all prove her ability in this line of work.

The board of managers sincerely hope that after Miss Timlow becomes settled in her new position, all friends of the home and contributors to its support will take the first opportunity of making the acquaintance of the new superintendent so that she may personally feel their interest in this work to which she is devoting her life.

MUSICIANS ORGANIZE.

Twenty-Two Alexandrians to Affiliate With The Union.

Twenty-two musicians of this city, at a meeting yesterday at McBurney's Hall, decided to become identified with the American Federation of Musicians. The meeting was presided over by D. J. Larkin. A committee was appointed to make arrangements incident to perfecting a permanent organization. The committee will meet Wednesday night next at the residence of Albert Jones, who was chosen temporary president of the association. Most of those who have signified their intention of becoming identified with the association are band musicians.

Those back of the organization desire to have piano players join, and it is expected a number of them will do so.

HOBSON FIGHTING FOR THE SENATE

PRIMARIES IN APRIL.

Prohibition and Gubernatorial Contest Important Features in Deciding Issue in Alabama.

Montgomery, Feb. 16.—The seven months' fight between Oscar Underwood, majority leader of the National House of Representatives, and Representative Pearson Hobson, for the Alabama vacancy in the United States Senate is drawing to a close. The deciding votes in a campaign that has attracted nation wide interest will be cast at the Democratic primaries April 6. The election will take place November 4, but that merely will be a ratification of the choice made in the primary.

Mr. Underwood has announced from Washington that so far as personal participation was concerned, his campaign already has ended. Representative Hobson is continuing the personal campaign he has been waging for many months, during which time he has spoken in nearly every county and town in the State.

Typical of all latter-day political fights in the South, the Hobson-Underwood campaign has been more or less involved with the question of State-wide prohibition. Mr. Hobson has charged his opponent with having been influenced by "liquor interests." He also charged that corporation influence was behind the campaign of Underwood for the Presidential nomination in 1912. These charges have been denied.

The Senatorship fight is involved more or less in the race for Governor, which likewise will be decided at the April primaries. There are five Gubernatorial candidates and the campaign has been more bitter than the Hobson-Underwood fight.

CARDINALS WIN GAME.

Trim the Carroll Institute Basketball Team, 28 to 12.

As predicted by Coach Charles Bopp that the Cardinals would give the Carroll Institute Basketball Team a big surprise, the Cardinals played rings around the Washingtonians Saturday night in Armory Hall, and won their game in a rattling good finish, 28 to 12.

The Carrolls greatly outweighed the Cardinals, and it seemed like a shame to pit them against the visitors, but the game had not progressed five minutes before they showed their class and their rapid passing of the ball, fine team work, and accurate goal shooting convinced Professor Maurice Joyce's proteges that Alexandria now had a basketball team that could make the crack teams of the Capital city go the limit to beat them, and those who winessed the work of the local lads are aware of that fact too.

Shalin, center field.
Carroll, Institute—Carroll right field.

Has Visions in Trance.

Forest Hill, Pa., Feb. 16.—Awaking from a four-day trance which started at a revival, Miss Mabel Reitenbach, 20 years old, an upsophisticated country girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Reitenbach, declared when she returned to her senses, that she had been to a beautiful city and had seen angels.

Miss Reitenbach was at a revival meeting in the United Evangelical Church, when she fell over, aparently in a faint. She was taken home, and remained in that condition for 24 hours. Then she revived for a while, and went into two successive comas.

Apparently as well as when she lost her senses, the girl declared she had wonderful visions. She said she was in a strange place, where everything was bright and clean, a perpetual sun was shining and no one ever slept. White robed women with white wings greeted her and made her happy by giving her every attention, and big men in white gowns—but wingless—treated her very courteously.

NEW YORK HIT BY SNOW STORM

Great Trouble and Delay Experienced in Delivering Food and Fuel.

TWO DIE FROM COLD.

Ocean Liners Delayed and Shipping Hampered in Bay by Cold Wave—Trouble at Docks.

New York, Feb. 16.—New York faced one of the most serious situations in years today when a steady fall of snow set in, augmenting the great drifts which choked the city streets as a result of the storm of Friday and Saturday.

A milk famine already gripped the city and coal and food shortage appeared imminent. Thousands of poor babies are suffering and charitable institutions are unable to meet the demands for relief.

Although 20,000 men with teams and wagons have been toiling constantly since Saturday they have scarcely made any impression on the great drifts which have blocked traffic and demoralized business. Half of Greater New York's surface transportation system is still out of commission and heavy hauling was impossible. Automobole trucks were unable to make any progress through the snow and horses foundered and fell in attempts to pull the slightest loads.

Delivery of milk yesterday was possible only in sleighs. Delivery panies put big boxes on runners made part of their rounds.

Three more deaths were rep[illegible] as a result of the storm today. J[illegible] Vreeland, of Boonton, N. J., fa[illegible] from his exertion in struggli[illegible] through the snow and was suffo[illegible] in a drift.

In the uptown section of Manh[illegible] traffic was still suspended Only sleighs were seen on the streets. Paths for pedestrians were cut through drifts four and five feet deep.

The temperature stood at 17 above zero at 8 o'clock

The subway was put to one of the greatest tests in its history in handling the early morning crowds. The renewed fall of snow made travel on the elevated lines uncertain, and hundreds and thousands sped through the tubes to their offices during the early hours.

Owing to the abandonment of all heavy hauling apartment houses and business buildings were unable to obtain coal today Although no actual shortage was reported the great amount of fuel consumed and the limited storage capacity made it certain that serious conditions would soon prevail should the storm continue. Grocers also complained at the delay in obtaining fresh foodstuffs and predicted an actual shortage unless conditions were soon alleviated.

Shipping was badly hampered in the bay. Vessels which had been waiting outside Sandy Hook were again unable to proceed to their piers owing to the blinding snow. Wireless messages have been received from many of the scores of ships now several days overdue. Vessels reaching port yesterday were scarred and crippled by the fierce storms which they encountered. All were coated with ice and many passengers had been injured when the ships were tossed by waves.

Honors to Maine Dead.

The sixteenth aniversary of the sinking of the old battleship Maine in Havana harbor, was celebrated with elaborate services under the auspices of the Army and Navy Union this afternoon. Because of the high wind and drifting snow the memorial services were held inside the riding hall of Fort Myer, but the remainder of the program was carried out as previously arranged, and the snow covered graves and monuments in the Arlington national cemetery were decorated as had been planned.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria-- Happenings in Society.

Miss Helen Norris Cummings entertained at Lee Camp Hall Saturday evening at a most attractive card party in honor of her niece, Miss Dupont, of Wilmington, Delaware.

The occasion being St. Valentine's night, everything was festive with his symbols of hearts and arrows. The decorations were artistically draped crimson streamers, suspending hearts, big and little, ruffled, and unruffled, all pierced by a golden arrow direct from Cupid's bow. The tally-keepers, the little Misses Sarah Cox, Isabel Boswell, and Carol Leadbeater, looked like valentines themselves in their snowy lingerie frocks with sashes and hair ribbons of rose-shade. Each guest was presented with one of St. Valentine's choicest souvenirs with complimentary verses that made one feel proud to be the guest of so cordial a hostess. After the game, which was four-handed euchre, the refreshments were served, and as each course was served, a pretty valentine souvenir was given. The red candy hearts were encased in slender crimson boxes topped with a small lass or laddie who doffed their hats with the greetings of the day. The ices and cakes were hearts, flowers, cupids, and other pretty valentine suggestions. Before midnight the guests departed, most enthusiastic over the pretty form of entertainment that had been given them.

Miss Cummings' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Stabler, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brockett, Mr. and Mrs. John Leadbeater, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. CO-OPERATIVE CHARITIES.

Organization Will Meet in Confederate Veterans' Hall Tomorrow Morning.

The Co-Operative Charities, always mindful of the distress following in the wake of frigid weather, are using every means at their disposal to relieve the temporary wants of those of our people who are destitute at this season. The organization will meet at the Confederate Veterans' Hall on Prince street tomorrow, and from 10 a m., until 1 p. m., will receive such contributions as may be made toward affording immediate relief to such as need it.

Those who are enjoying the blessings of heaven can show their appreciation of the full and plenty at their disposal by imparting to those who are suffering, some silently, for food and fuel while grim winter surrounds them. It is unnecessary to urge an immediate response. A mere suggestion is doubtless all that is necessary.

The managers of this organization should meet with the encouragement they deserve.

Ivy Corsets

The new spring models will be demonstrated

Our Ivy Corsets are built upon the straight, natural figure lines that were so modish and comfortable last season. But rigidity and harshness is nowhere to be seen. The materials are extremely soft and pliable, and more beautiful than ever before. Boning in all models is very much lighter, some are almost entirely without bones of any kind; those that are used are simply to emphasize the natural lines of the figure, rather than for suppression.

Light Boning, however, can be very inefficient if not properly utilized. This is the point that counts the right placing of the bones and the correct modeling. Ivy Corsets represent what is possible—in height of fashion, correctness and comfort—with the light boning idea carried out fully to the commands of style.

We have in our present assortments of Ivy Corsets which have just arrived models for every figure—to fit accurately, stylishly, and serve every purpose with comfort. The boneless Corsets for the youthful slender figures, extremely low in bust and long hip— in fact they really may be said to be the corset for the waist, abdomen and hips. They are ideal for immature figures, women of slender build, and for athletic and neglige wear. Other models with more boning, answering individually every woman's requirements.

Ivy Corsets are priced from $1.00 to $10 50 the pair

FAKE SOLICITORS.

Turkish Ambassador Repudiates Claims of Persons Asking Money for Syrians.

Richmond, Feb. 16.—On the instructions of Governor Stuart, Secretary Forward has issued a warning to the public against several Syrians, who represent themselves to be the agents of Turkish educational organizations, and who are soliciting funds for the building of schools in Asia Minor. The Syrians called on Governor Stuart several days ago to obtain his indorsement to their public petitions.

Before giving it, the Governor got into communication with the Turkish embassy in Washington. He received a reply from Ambassador Youssouf Zia Pasha repudiating the claims of the Syrians.

"The Imperial Ottoman Empire in no way recognizes the persons mentioned by Your Excellency as authorized agents," said the ambassador.

The ambassador went on to say in his reply that the Syrians in question have operated in many of the large cities of the United States No direct accusation of crookedness is made against them by the ambassador, but he makes it plain that they are not the accredited representatives of the Turkish government. They have made a practice of obtaining indorsement of their credentials by the Mayors of cities in which they have worked and by the Governors of as many States as they have been able to visit.

The Syrians have not begun to operate to any extent in Richmond. They will, no doubt, begin a house-to-house campaign for money to erect schools and churches in Asia Minor. P

VOTE TO ABOLISH HOME.

House Committee on Asylums and Prisons Reports Baker Bill Favorably.

Richmond, Feb. 16.—The House Committee on Asylums and Prisons has reported favorably the Baker bill, which provides for the eventual abolition of the Virginia Home and Industrial School for Girls in Chesterfield County, to which objection has been raised by the Bon Air Citizens' Association. Under terms of the bill, the State Board of Charities and Corrections is directed to take charge of the inmates and to have them classified and examined. Such as are fit subjects are to be sent to the State Colony for Feeble-Minded, a few may be found to be proper subjects for State asylums for the insane, and for the others the bill directs that suitable homes be procured. It also provides that no more girls may be committed to the home, that the property shall revert to its trustees, to be disposed of as they see fit, and that no further institution of this character is to be continued at that location, either with or without State aid.

The aged man had been in ill health for the past month, and his friends insisted that he should return to Salem, but it is said, he refused on the ground that he did not have fit clothing to wear on the journey When his friends procured transportation for him and insisted that he should go home, he ended his life.

DIES FROM HYDROPHOBIA.

Rabid Dogs Attack Hundreds of Persons in Virginia in Short Period.

Richmond, Feb. 16.—In support of the Walker bill for the restraint of dogs, State Bacteriologist Ferguson has collected a mass of data on rabies and mad dogs in Virginia. Since the establishment of a State Pasteur Institute three years ago a total of 315 persons have been treated by Dr Ferguson with the anti-hydrophobia injection, while 250 Virginians received treatment at the United States Hygienic Laboratory, in Washington.

A total of 120 persons, either bitten or wounded by mad dogs received the Fasteur treatment from officers of the State Board of Health last year. This number represents those who were unable to pay for the treatment at private Pasteur institutes or in Washington. In addition, thirty-five were treated at a private institute in Richmond.

There were four deaths from hydrophobia in Virginia last year. Not a single death occurred among the mad dog victims treated by the State Board of Health. From 14 to 18 per cent of all persons bitten by mad dogs develop hydrophobia, which is always fatal. Consequently of the 120 persons treated at the Health Department, about twenty would have died a horrible death but for the help given opportunely.

Dr. Ferguson and the State Board of Health strongly advocate the passage of the proposed bill for the regulation and restraint of dogs.

STOLEN WILL CASE.

Governor Stuart to Write to J. P. Morgan Regarding Martha Washington Document.

Fairfax, Va., Feb. 16.—Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution who have been demanding from J. P. Morgan the return of the Martha Washington will stolen from Fairfax county Courthouse during the civil war and found in the private collection of the late J. P. Morgan, have decided to resort to diplomacy to regain the treasure instead of appealing to the law through State Senator Thornton's bill, now a law, but held up temporarily.

Governor Stuart will shoulder the burden of reclaiming the will, endeavoring to do so by gentle persuasion upon Mr. Morgan and the plea that his holding stolen proptrty cannot reflect credit on him or his family, even though the property was taken during times of war.

Governor Staurt has agreed to write Mr. Morgan a letter couched in the most diplomatic language possible asking for the return of the will.

It it believed here that Mr. Morgan will accede to the governor's request and return the will, thereby avoiding unpleasantness and the bother of a long and hard fought law sult. Should such a suit be brought efforts will be made by the Fairfax Daughters to learn just how Mr. Morgan's father got the valuable document in his possession.

There will be no lack of money to push the case against Mr. Morgan should the matter finally be sent to the courts.

BIBLE CONFERENCE BROUGHT TO A CLOSE.

Scenes in a Washington theatre yesterday afternoon when the Bible Conference was closing were fervid and showed that the good work which had been in progress during the week was bringing forth fruit. Rev. Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, who had been a prominent figure in the meetings, deeply moved his audience and uttered many truths that should be remembered. He said among other things:

The man who scants his work to go to church sets a bad example. The woman who leaves her home to become publicly religious is irreligious. Her place is at home.

Christ worked, and his work was a rebuke to those who do not. Work is not a punishment for sin; it is one of the greatest blessings in life.

Christ did not go into a cloister; he worked among men, with the beasts of the field, and among the flowers.

Christ as a workman aimed at perfection. He never made a yoke that hurt an ox. His yoke can safely be worn by men.

One of the speakers at the conference Saturday suggested that the Book of Revelation should be read last by Bible students. This observation brings to mind the fact that some fledglings in theology seem to read the Apocalypse and the Book of Daniel first, and imagine they understand the prophecies set forth in these writings, and ignore the primer of the good book. It is difficult to keep such would-be teachers bridled, and the practical lessons which should afford the sincere milk of the word are cast into an eclipse.

Ministers in many cities yesterday made earnest attempts to interest their hearers in the close study of the sacred writings which unfortunately are too often ignored in our day when so many other things absorb the attention of churches. Some speakers threw out practical hints which it would be well for us all to heed.

Several ministers in Alexandria made the Bible the subject of their discourses, calling attention to the incomparable literary style of the scriptures, their antiquity as of historical importance and the comfort afforded the human race by the written word during the last thirty-five centuries.

A period of about sixteen hundred years was covered while the Bible was being written, and all classes of men figured as writers. Shepherds, kings, physicians, tax collectors, fishermen and others at times took up the pen, some living centuries apart.

There seems to be a marked revival in these studies at present among all denominations. The Jews are having their Old Testament writings revised and a new edition of the word will soon be circulated among the descendants of the ancient people.

REIGN OF THE FROST KING.

All sections of the country except the Pacific slope will be held by Jack Frost's grasp until after tomorrow, according to the Weather Bureau.

Great suffering has been the result of the severe weather in New York. Churches were open Saturday night to give the poor and homeless shelter and food. This was the plan decided upon by twenty-five clergymen representing every denomination who responded to the call of the Religious Citizenship League to consider the question of the unemployed. There are more than 300,000 unemployed men in the city, many of whom are in need of immediate assistance.

The blizzard weather which made its advent Friday was still in evidence at an early hour this morning when snow was flying. After a short interval the white flakes once more filled the air. The sun subsequently began to shine and fair weather followed.

Hicks and the ground hog redeemed themselves during the past few days. The former had stated that snow and frigid weather would prevail from the 14th to the 16th, and while the forecast was being fulfilled the rodent grinned in his retreat.

SLIP OF THE TONGUE.

Senior Warden Objected to Dance—Then Minister Used Bad Word.

New York, Feb. 16.—To prove that they mean to stand by the Rev. Charles L. Quinn, pastor of the Reformed Episcopal Church of the Redemption, at 602 Leonard street, Brooklyn, even if he did say "damn," thirty girls have resigned from the Helping Hand Society.

The girls met in the lecture room of the church and were called to order by Miss Hattie Gieger. After putting the society out of business by their resignations the girls decided to turn over all the money in the treasury to the minister. They decided further that if Mr. Quinn's resignation goes into effect March 1st, following the dispute with William E. MacEwan, the senior warden, they will seek another house of worship.

Twenty-eight members of the Men's League at a meeting Monday night resigned after turning over all the league's funds to the minister and announcing they, too, would leave the church with Mr. Quinn.

The trouble between the minister and senior warden followed a dance given in the lecture room of the church by the young people two weeks ago. Mr. MacEwan thinks persons who dance are bound straight for a bad place paved with good intentions. Mr. Quinn then informed the irate senior warden that "there are things a dammed sight worse than dancing." Then the senior warden started a campaign against the minister, who handed in his resignation.

BEATING WAY ON HONEYMOON.

Young Couple Ride in Box Cars and Blind Baggage.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 16. — Saying they had spent their honeymoon riding in box cars and on the blind baggage from Youngstown, Pa., to Chicago, where they expected to find work, David McColland and his 20-year old bride applied to the South Chicago police station Saturday night for a place to sleep.

McCallon told the police that they were married November 1, at the home of his bride's fathers. "Not wanting to depend on my father-in-law, who is a cripple, we decided to start west," he said. "I used to work in a steel plant in South Chicago We had very little money so we started to beat our way. We rode in box cars to Toledo, and remained there about a week. I worked there a couple of days and we rode in an interurban car to Cleveland. From Cleveland we rode to Kalamazoo on the blind baggage. We came to Chicago in a empty box car. We have been on the road 12 hours and would like a place to sleep until we get a new start."

They were given a bed in the matron's quarters and a charitable organization will try to find work for McCollan and a home for his bride until they have sufficient funds to begin housekeeping.

ALLIGATOR ATTACKS MAN.

Delawarean Barely Saved by Quick-Witted Gunning Mate.

Middletown, Del., Feb. 16.—Edward Johnson, of Port Penn, while gunning in the lowlads near Georgetown, S. C., last week, had occasion to cross a small swamp, but he had ... steps when his leg ... seized as by a steel trap and he ... himself held fast in the jaws ... alligator, which was slowly ... him into the soft mud, according to a letter received here by ... friends.

The presence of mind of Thomas B. Fisher, also of Port Penn, a gunning companion, saved his life. Fisher killed the alligator by sending a bullet through its head. He then secured a fence rail and with this pulled Johnson to dry land. Johnson's leg was badly torn and he had to be sent to a hospital for treatment.

SENSATION AT HEARING.

Wife Testifies for Druggist Who is Charged With Murder.

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 16.—A sensation came Saturday in the case of R. M. Jetton, the Davidson, N. C., druggist, charged with the murder of Dr. W. H. Wooten on Tuesday, February 10, when Mrs. Jetton took the stand in the habeas corpus proceedings instituted in an effort to obtain release upon bail for the defendant.

Mrs. Jetton testified that Dr. Wooten was attempting to assault her when her husband walked into the room. She said her husband entered the room and spoke to the physician, who struck Jetton. At this point she ran from the room and upon reaching the porch heard the pistol shot. Mrs. Jetton said Dr. Wooten had visited her on two former occasions, and that she had ordered him from the house both times. Dr. Wooten, in a dying statement, said he had gone to the home at Mrs. Jetton's suggestion, and that she was showing him a new dress when her husband entered and shot without allowing the victim to make an explanation.

TROUBLE IN JAPAN.

Naval Attaches Charged With Bribery—Aoki Seriously Ill.

Tokyo, Feb. 16.—Vice Admiral Kichi Jujii, formerly Japanese naval attache at Berlin, and Capt. Sawasai have been ordered before a court-martial on the charge of bribery in connection with the alleged naval corruption.

As a result of their investigation several other naval officers have been isolated, although definite charges against them have not been formulated. The naval scandal has been used as a weapon against certain opposition groups in an effort to discredit and overthrow the ministry. Many mass meetings have been held in protest against the government and riotous scenes have occurred on the floor of the lower house.

Members of the diet have been attacked while proceeding to the house and today the ministers of the interior, Kel Hara, had a narrow escape from injury. Two men leaped in to his automobole in an attempt to assault him, but was seized by detectives. All the parties charge that the others are hiring henchmen to resort to violence.

Read Admiral Mitsugore Fujii, head of the fourth section of the department of naval materials, also is critically ill.
